Presbyterians Of District Plan To Have Summer Camp

Hope That Many Young People Will Be Able To Attend Glenora Camp

"BEE" AT CHURCH

WOODVILLE, June 30.—(Staff Correspondent)—A meeting of the various members of the Young People's Societies of Lindsay Presbytery, was held in Knox Church, Woodville, this week. Annual matters discussed were plans for a picnic to be held at Glenora Camp, Lake Sturgeon, on Wednesday, August 1st, during the week in which members of Young People's Societies will be at the camp. Further particulars will be made known.

This should prove to be a real treat for the young folk, and it is to be hoped that the suggestion will meet with a fine response from the various societies. In the presbytery, Rev. J. C. Orie, of Lindsay was present at the meeting also Miss Corbush McFarlane, of St. Andrew's Guild, Lindsay.

Redeemed
Brimley's Bakery and Ice Cream Parlor has taken on quite a summer hue, the entire interior having been done over in cream and green shades, as well as additional room made in the ice cream parlor. On Tuesday afternoon, a formal opening was held, under the patronage of cream, cake and sandwiches was served, and a very fine presentation given of the new accommodation, which should prove a fine asset to the village.

"Be" At Church

A "be" which might have been termed as a school "Arbour Day" was held by the men of Knox Church on Monday, to move the grass around the church and also to tear down the east wing of the church doors, which seemed to have long since complicated their day of service. They indeed were the old landmarks.

The north and west sections still remain, and are used almost exclusively during the winter, as many very family motes to church during the summer. How times change! Ideas for houses are all most a past thought, perhaps taking their place. As like as not, the younger generation would have difficulty in backing successfully off one if the horse were the "vase" type that razed beds at some of the tin was shown.

Celebration At Port Hope Is Most Successful Affair

The business section was a mass of humanity in the morning when an old-time calithumpian parade was staged, including all kinds of floats, clowns, etc. The parade was headed by the Cobourg Kiln Band, paraded to the Town Hall where an official welcome was tendered by Mayor W. J. Crowther. Replies were tendered by Rev. J. Clarke, Brook's, N.Y.; Henry B. Henwood, general manand music was ruled by three bands, the Lindsay Boys' Band, under the baton of Bandmaster J. T. Shunk, the Sons of Ulster Flute Band, Ochawa, and the Durham Regimental Bugle Band.

After the afternoon school classes, bands, ball players and others paraded to the town park for sports.

In the afternoon sports program was run off at the Town Park. There was baseball, softball and racing.

On Sunday special centennial services were conducted at all churches which are being made in Jan-

...the dancing game, cheering, and the enthusiastic fans of the home team. The decisive run being made by Lloyd Hall and a deafening roar of cheers.

A most appetizing supper of—well just everything that was good and delicious was served by the ladies on the lawn in front of the Club House, four large tables hisvide a life saving or a new cork life preserver from the water-tight trunk as far as Barnie Stone. The water in the particular spot has been badly broken for some time and this improvement will be greatly appreciated by all.

In the evening all repaired to the Foresters Hall where the Young Friends of Mr. John Mc-people from Maui, "I've been thinking about this play for some time," said one of the main stars, "I've chosen it because it's a clever comedy in which I can show my wit and which was a fast evening's entertainment."

The cast was composed of men who impersonated well the characters they represented. The play was humorous and thoroughly enjoyed by all. The Hall was packed to the doors, with hardly a vacant room in the building. W. Jones of Milbourn and Rev. W. Smith were 2nd and 3rd. Seats 1 and 2 and Mr. (Rev.) Shaw played a number of Shakespearian characters and 2nd and 3rd.

Presentation For Teacher At Reboro

Miss Gray who is leaving to assume duties in Lindsay school is recipient of presentation and address by former pupils.

Reboro July 11—A very enjoyable evening was spent on Friday, July 11th, at the home of the pupils of the Reboro Junior and Senior schools when their presentation of Miss Gray, the teacher, on the eve of her departure from Reboro with satisfaction brought home.

Mrs. Chas. Middle and Mrs. Lewis Soles very capably looked after the arrangements of the evening. Mr. William Moore was chairman. A pleasing programme consisting of recitations, songs and singing was given by the pupils, after which the very successful flower contest was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Chas. Middle was the winner of the prize.

Words of appreciation were expressed to Miss Gray by many present. Mrs. Soles made the following address and Mrs. Lewis Soles made the presentation.

THE ADDRESS

Dear Miss Gray:

It is with mingled pleasure and sorrow that we assemble here tonight to bid you farewell from our school. Of the two services in the afternoon, for we realize that it would have found one who would find your presence so especially as you have done. We realize especially that of every person's worth is not recognized until it is too late; but we sincerely hope it is not too late to show at least in this small measure how we profited from your patient and painstaking efforts with us.

We ask you to accept this gift as a token of appreciation for all the good work and splendid instruction lessons given us during your stay here in Reboro school. We think we know it is but a small attempt at thanks in comparison with your goodness and ability in our instruction and learning and in community interest, but we hope it is as hearty as we can, in presenting our best wishes to you as you leave Reboro.

TALKED ON "MAN'S REAL SERVICES"

JANETVILLE, July 25.—(Staff Correspondence)—Most enjoyable and of exceptional interest, was the service which was held on Sunday evening at the Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Victor Walter, Pastor of the church, delivered a most timely and to the point sermon, the subject being, "What is a Man's Real Service?" He said the last letter of "time" is the first letter of "eternity," and that real success is to be found in the things that are to have a home where love and loyalty to Christ abide. "The environment of a Christian home makes for success and is the greatest inheritance that can come to a boy or girl."

The music was exceptionally fine, and a real treat, being supplied by the Rev. Walter's sister, Mrs. C. P. Fisher, her husband, and daughter, Mary, of Trenton, New Jersey, where Mr. Fisher is a solicitor and Mrs. Fisher is organist, in the Grace Street Baptist Church. The first number was a solo, "We'll go to the end of the world," by Mrs. Fisher, a young girl of fourteen years.

The next number was a trio, by the Fisher family. The "City of Dreadful Night" and the last, "Have You Owned The Cross?" by Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. and Mr. Fisher had been invited to sing in Toronto on Sunday, but turned down the invitation, in order to be able to sing for their Janetville friends, who thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated their sweet music.

The Rev. Walter announced that there would be no service next Sunday, owing to the anniversary service at Westminster, where Rev. John Lindsay of Whitby will be the speaker, and special music will be supplied by the Westminster Male Quartette. He also announced the anniversary service at Balliol, next Sunday, July 29th, when the speakers will be the Rev. John Lindsay and the Rev. Dr. Barry. There will be no church services during the month of August, as the Rev. Walter and family will be on vacation.

Dr. Smith and Mrs. Smith, Chalmers, called on friends in town on Monday.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION IS FINISHED

READ REGISTRATION ROLL OF MORE THAN 50 NAMES AT ASTOCK SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.

MAINTLE, July 25.—(Staff Correspondence)—The program for the centennial celebration at Astock was continued on Monday afternoon with almost as large an attendance as on the previous day. It commenced with the singing of "The Maple Leaf Forever," which was heartily sung. As the program for the day was given out, community singing was enjoyed as a feature.

The chairman, Mr. William P. Philp, gave a splendid address of welcome and before concluding made reference to and mentioned the names of the boys who went overseas in the Great War, some of whom never returned but were down, plus lists for their country.

Rev. M. C. McLean paid a beautiful tribute to those by having the audience stand for a moment's silence in honor of those departed.

The main address of the day was given by John Carter, of Ottawa, a former teacher and after his opening remarks related many amusing incidents which occurred during his term there.

Being mainly a Scotch settlement the Gaelic language was read more or less by the older students and the teacher of course learned it to some extent, enough to keep the audience in rapture of laughter while telling the stories.

Miss M. Wood again read the "Historical Sketch" of the School. Miss S. Wood with more than a dozen addresses were given by Mrs. Fred Braden of Oak, a former teacher, Miss Miss Macdonald, the last teacher.

Rev. Mr. Kennedy of St. Mary's, formerly of Alberta, told of the centennial celebration in St. Mary's and advised having one here.

Rev. Mr. McLean, a brother of Mr. John (Barnes) McLean, of Winnipeg, addressed the audience in the absence of his brother.

Reading "The Girl of the Year" and Helen Brooks. A few solo were rendered by Mr. Cass Thompson, of Brooks, a former pupil.

Mr. Shindler, with Mrs. and son, accompanied by the Graham Shindler on his violin and the piano in Mrs. O. Johnson.

Meers, Col. McDonald and Mr. McPherson, two other residents, joined in a Gaelic conversation which was quite interesting.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. A. Lake, a former pupil, coming from the greatest distance, also to Miss Thompson as being the oldest, and present.
